To others, it's a daily act of courage, perseverance, and an indomitable will to survive.

THE CYCLE OF ADDICTION, PROSTITUTION, AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING is a growing, silent epidemic throughout the Rochester area. Brightstar Community, a new, Rochester-based non-profit organization, is helping our victimized women survive and heal from the agony of their ordeal. Brightstar Community is hosting two events open to the public with Becca Stevens, renowned author and founder of Thistle Farms™, to create further awareness of this devastating epidemic and to share her inspiring model for the recovery of its victims.
